BERLIN SILENT ON PEACE PACT.

Strange Apathy Seen as Time to Sign Approaches.

Government, Disorganized, is Letting Matters Drift.

Russian Bolshevik Agents are Showing Activity.

BY RICHARD HENRY LITTLE.

(BY CABLE-ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
BERLIN, April 30 (via Paris, May 1).—Three O'clock, Mon. in the day days, was never any quieter than Berlin is right now. And yet the Paris jury sent word of its arrival at a verdict. It seems to me the prisoner at the bar ought to show a little more interest.

But Berlin is not only quiet, but apathetic. When I came here two months ago there was a great deal of excitement in the air. The streets were filled with great crowds and they milled around like Texas steers when they were being driven. Cafes, restaurants, dance halls, theaters were all jammed to the doors. The majority of the people stayed as long as they could of the hysteria.

There is none of that now. There are no crowds on the streets and the theaters, dance halls and cabarets, while well patronized, are not crowded. There is nothing electrical in the air that warns a suspense. It is as if this were America, one would expect to find bulletin boards in front of all the newspaper offices with headlines of persons packed in front of each one reading with breathless interest the news fragments posted. There is no single bulletin board in all Berlin that can discover except one on Unter den Linden which has not been used for three or four days. I have never seen more than a dozen persons standing there.

PEOPLE ARE CALM.

Newspapers have already printed what they declare to be the terms of peace, but still the calm continues, although, according to conflicting reports, Germany loses Alsace-Lorraine, the Ruhr province, probably North Schleswig and districts in the Belgian frontier. According to Berlin reports, Danzig and the Sudeten district are to be international-ized. It is not known whether the German troops allowed west of the Rhine, and the country to pay an indemnity of 135,000,000 marks.
From the German point of view, I should imagine the terms would be considered hard, but if anybody is mild about it, he keeps very silent.
If an explosion does come because of dissatisfaction with the peace terms, it probably will be all the greater because of the strange quiet that prevails now, but it will be none
the less a phenomenon for these things usually give a hint they are on the way.

But Germany is so disorganized
now nobody will dare to hazard a definite opinion as to the future.
The people of Berlin already seem to regard the Soviet disturbances in Russia with no greater interest than they show towards happenings in Hungary and Russia.

THEY NO LEADERS.

None of the states that formed the old German empire is interested only in its own trouble. Germany has no leaders in the present crisis
no government that anybody feels any deep loyalty for or much respected in so things just drift along.
People are fond of saying Germany will embrace Bolshevism and turn to Russia if that peace terms are too harsh, but most of them
don't believe anything of the kind.
They don't like to see Germany
probably have to swallow any medicine the peace doctors think best for her trouble, but there are a lot of folks who believe down to their soles that is what will happen.

Others hope that a great resentment against the peace terms
may be the spark which will weld Germany together again. People in Germany always have been accustomed to having a paternal monarchy do all their thinking for them and tell them just what all are to do and how they shall do it.

They would probably like to bolt with indignation at the peace
terms, but who is there to tell them they should bolt or how to set about it?

BOLSHEVIST HOPES.

This very situation gives the Bolshevik agents who have come in from Russia their greatest hope.
They think Germany is so disorganized and dazed that the country will frantically turn to any force that helps in, selects the leadership and says, "Follow me." But there are half a dozen or more cliques doing the same thing, and the present government is the loudest of all,
while the Germans had been trained to hear only one voice. With no man shouting at them it would seem the bewilderment would be greater instead of less.

Anyhow, there are no surface indications today of any great consciousness liable to be manifest in Germany after the peace terms, which is not saying that no convulsion will take place. But right now there are no signs of it in Berlin.
There are not even any public meetings where orators with rolling eyes and madly waving hands be-

PARIS, May 1.—Oil lamps and candles were used to provide light in the headquarters of the American delegation at the Hotel de Col-lon during the early hours today, as a result of the May Day strike.
Because of the observance of May Day, President Wilson and other American peace delegates were obliged to walk. Brig-Gen. William W. Harris issued an order today prohibiting the circulation of American Army automobiles and forbidding soldiers from strolling on the streets. American delegates put in a supply of provisions yesterday.
Several persons were slightly injured in clashes with troops resisting the passage of crowds toward the Place de la Concorde during attempts at May Day demonstrations here this afternoon. No shots were fired, but a few individuals in the crowd were slashed with swords.

Crowds which gradually had been assembling in the Place Madeleine broke through the infantry cordon stretched between the Madeleine and the Place de la Concorde and swept down the Rue Royale. Cavalry charged them back into the side streets, but several thousand reached the Place de la Concorde.
This afternoon work was virtually complete, all restaurants and cafes were closed and guests in the hotels went hungry if they had not supplied themselves with food beforehand.
Theaters, music halls and other resorts did not open. No newspapers were published and periodical stoppages occurred in the postal and wire services.
A rain throughout the forenoon
gave the city a gloomy appearance.
Some provision stores were open,
but were expected to close at noon.
Liquor houses were open. The tie-up of the transportation lines was broken somewhat by the appearance of a few taxicabs on the streets.
The union of syndicates of the Department of the Seine placarded
Paris yesterday with an expression of surprise that the government had forbidden street demonstrations May Day and protesting against "such a measure of distrust of the working class."

ARGENTINA TIED UP.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
BUENOS AIRES, May 1.—May Day was celebrated by a general
twenty-four-hour strike in the republic. The stoppage of business was complete here. Labor meetings were held. Military forces were on guard.

LONDON, May 1.—An Irish workers except those in the northern parts of the island have ceased work today in compliance with the Transport Workers' Union's order.

ARGENTINA DENIES
STAND WITH MEXICO.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
BUENOS AIRES, April 30.—Honorio Pueyrredon, Foreign Minister, denied today that Argentina had any part in Mexico's refusal to recognize the Monroe Doctrine.

BID ON CRATER LAKE ROAD.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
PORTLAND (Or.) May 1.—Five bids were received today by the local office of the United States forest service for the construction of a road 22.2 miles long, between Prospect and the boundary of Crater Lake National Park, on the highway from Medford to Crater Lake. It is the plan to have most of the grading on the highway performed during the early summer.

Man-killing Jellison is Killed.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
WOODBURY (N. J.) May 1.— Panic gripped Woodbury for an hour this afternoon when a lioness on exhibition in a circus side show killed her keeper before a small crowd of spectators, escaped from her cage and bounded into a small clump of woods which adjoins the town. A posse of men and boys pursued the animal into the woods and finally killed her with a woodpile of shot.

FIRST PEACE SESSION HELD.

Bismarck, then the world's diplomatic center.
AUTOMOBILES PROVIDED.
Automobiles, instead, were provided today. M. Cambon was the first of the mission to arrive in his car, accompanied by William Martin, chief of protocol of the Foreign Office, Lord Harding, accompanied by Secretary Henry Vothman, Ambassador Matsui, with his secretary,
and Henry White, with Secretary Christian Harter, followed in quick succession and immediately entered the conference room to await the arrival of the Germans. The latter were delayed for a short time owing to the fact that insufficient instructions had been given to the French gendarmes controlling traffic along the route to the hotel. They halted the car to see the chauffeur's permit.

Count von Brockhoff-Rantau, at the entrance to the hotel, raised his hat to a group of photographers, correspondents, and officers who stood outside the building, then passed directly to the conference room.
Arrangements for the ceremony provided for strict privacy and the exclusion of all not immediately concerned from the precincts of the hotel.
The French Foreign Office will issue later a formal statement covering the proceedings.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
VERSAILLES, May 1.—The French official statement on the ceremony of the peace congress today says:
"The president of the committee on verification of credentials of the Inter-Allied conference, Jules Cam-bon, and the other members, Henry White, Lord Harding, and Baron Matsui, arrived at 2:15 o'clock today at Trion Palace, Count von Brockhoff-Rantau, president of the German delegation. The latter presented the president of the German committee on verification. Landberg, Minister of Justice, and also Simonds, director of justice in the Foreign office and Ganss, Counselor

of the Foreign Office.
"The German credentials were given to M. Cambon, who handed over in exchange the credentials established by the Allied and associated powers. The German delegates then retired. The respective committees will now examine the credentials submitted to them."

PARIS, May 1.—The adequacy of the powers conferred upon the German delegates and the question as to the extent to which the delegates are qualified to speak for Bavaria, which came suddenly to the front
yesterday, may furnish an occasion to defer the presentation of the treaty by the Allies.
German prisoners retained in France under the armistice conditions will be returned to Germany
by the terms of the peace treaty, according to the Temps today. In exchange Germany will pledge herself to send to France skilled laborers
for reconstruction work.

VERSAILLES, Wednesday, April 30.—The spacious dining-room of the Hotel Trion today received its Peace Congress installation—three long tables in horseshoe form covered with the traditional green cloth of diplomacy. The installation is imposing in the size of each of the side tables, which extend some forty feet through the room. At the head of the apartment is a table about thirty-five feet long, at which the representatives of the great powers will be seated with President Poincare or Premier Clemenceau in the center.
Inside in the horseshoe is a table covered with red plush and in the space between one side of the horseshoe and the windows is a similar table. In the window openings are smaller tables for secretaries.

This is a scene for the handling
over the terms of peace.
The German delegates were out for a stroll today despite the inclement weather. There was a bus coming and going of subordinates between the three hotels occupied by the mission. The German exists little curiosity in Versailles.

PARIS, May 1.—Various lesser details of the peace treaty were taken up today by the council of three, among them the question of the captured German cables.
With the Kian-Chev problem disposed of, the Adriatic question is the only highly important matter remaining unsettled.

The council of three met with the foreign ministers and some members of the war council at the Quai d'Orsay at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The subject under discussion has not been announced.

DETROIT'S MAY DAY
MARKED BY STRIKES.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
DETROIT, May 1.—May Day was marked in Detroit by strikes in nearly a score of factories, upwards of 2000 workers joining an undetermined number who failed to report for work this morning. In all cases the strikers have been demanding increased wages.

Some estimates place the number of men out at 12,500.
Police reserves shortly noon broke up a parade of several thousand radicals.

OFFICERS OF CABINET

stitutes mail matter relating to the business of their departments which

that no law was violated by the circulation of a discussion of the army court-martial controversy over the document supported one side of the

BELGIUM DEMANDING INDEMNITY IN PEACE TREATY.

WHICH OMTS SEVENTH
"FOURTEEN POINTS."

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
BRUSSELS, Wednesday, April 30.—Strong measures relative to Belgium's demands at the Peace conference have been decided upon by the Belgian government. The Premier added that a commission also would be set up to advise on the principle of a minimum
of wages in all industries to be applicable by law.

Belgium will not accept the council of three doing so, but pose upon her. She will demand complete fulfillment of the provisions contained in the declaration of the council for a forty-eight week.

The Premier added that a commission also would be set up to advise on the principle of a minimum
of wages in all industries to be
applicable by law.

LONDON, May 1.—One of principal features of the arrangement for indemnity to Belgium against which Belgium is insisting is that that country will receive £100,000,000 as a part of the £100,000,000 which Germany will be obliged to pay by the end of next year, part of a total reparation to be paid later, according to the Paris correspondent.

The Belgian delegates, it is said, decline to accept the arrangement without consulting their government.

A Reuter dispatch from Belgium states that three members of the Belgian Cabinet will be sent to Paris to instruct the Belgian delegation.

Hear this famous Victor artist!

Extraordinary interest attaches to this McCormack recital because of the double opportunity it affords the music-loving public.

It is a privilege in itself to hear this great tenor, and added importance is given to the event in that it enables you to compare his wonderful voice with his Victrola Records.

Attend this concert and note the individual qualities that distinguish McCormack's magnificent voice. Then go to any Victor dealer's and hear the Victrola Records by McCormack.
Note how faithfully his interpretations are portrayed on the Victrola.

It is because of this absolute fidelity that McCormack makes Victrola Records exclusively; that the greatest artists of all the world are exclusive Victor artists.

WALK-OVER

The War Tax On Shoes

ON MAY 1 a 10 per cent Luxury tax on Shoes and Hosiery went into effect.

It applies only to shoes retailing for more than $10 and then ONLY TO THE AMOUNT IN EXCESS OF $10; to Women's Hosiery retailing for more than $2 the pair, and then ONLY ON THE AMOUNT IN EXCESS OF $2; to Men's hose retailing for more than $1 the pair and then ONLY ON THE AMOUNT IN EXCESS OF $1.

Thus the tax on a pair of WALK-OVER Shoes retailing for $12 would be 10 per cent of $2, or 20 cents, making the price of the shoes $12.20.

A really good WALK-OVER shoe, under present conditions sells for $8, $9 and $10. Higher prices give additional value, while excellent value for the money can be had under $8.

Women's Hosiery up to $2 the pair and Men's Hose up to $1 the pair, are EXEMPT FROM TAXATION.

DISCORD ARISES IN GERMAN GOVERNMENT.

HEADS OF ARMISTICE COMMISSION AND PEACE DELEGATION ARE AT ODDS.

BERNE, April 30.—(French Wireless Service.) Serious differences have arisen between the members of the national German government and a change may be expected shortly, according to telegrams from Berlin.

The conflict between Matthias Erzberger, head of the armistice commission, and Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, Foreign Minister, and head of the peace delegation, is said to have reached the breaking point.

In addition there are serious political problems of internal policy. Many members of the majority coalition, the advocates say, appear inclined to co-operate with the conservative independent socialists and to save Germany from a government on the Bolshevik order. These leaders are said to favor the creation of a new government based on the principle of the councils of workers and attempts will be made to get Hugo Haase and Herr Breitscheid, independent socialists, to enter a coalition cabinet. A national body of councils, it is said, might supplant the national assembly and adopt a policy of socialization on a wide scale.

for July 4. He declared that there will be three general strikes in the United States within the next few months. The first of these, he stated, probably will be called on July 4, and the second on September 2. A vote is now being taken on these strikes, he said, and he urged all who carried two cards, the red card of the I.W.W., and their labor union card, to attend the union meetings, and make the "scissors" bill up. He urged everyone to do all they could to make the call for a general strike a success.

The park was decorated characteristically. Red signs and red flags were everywhere. The cards all bore invitations to the workers to join the ranks of the Reds. On all sides the red flag of the anarchists and the I.W.W. could be seen. Several large booths were decorated with red flags and red bunting, where books, papers and pamphlets advertised to contain information that showed "the only true government" were on sale.

"BUY BAIL BONDS."

One of the signs, a large white one, urged all Liberty Bond owners to sell their bonds and buy "bail bonds." Several of the cards and signs solicited membership in the I.W.W., and still others said there was "no enemy for the laboring man."

Wiseman and Mrs. Hartman both admitted they are members of the I.W.W., and both seemed proud of it. At the Police Station Mrs. Hartman said she is a "free" and wished everyone else were. She is the wife of Henry Hartman, a sheet metal worker, who brought to the station she told the desk sergeant she is a Russian by birth; that she had been in this country for twenty-three years, coming to Los Angeles from Philadelphia. The Hartmans have lived in this city for six months. Mrs. Hartman had the characteristic color of the "wobblies" prominently displayed on her clothes. Her hat was trimmed with bright red ribbons, and large clusters of red flowers. She wore red carnations in her bodice.

"DOESN'T ALWAYS WORK."

Wiseman says he is proud he is a member of the I.W.W. He says he is a machinist by trade, and then admitted he did not work all the time.

"I am a machinist when I work at anything," he stated.

Wiseman has been in the United States two years. He is a Russian by birth. He came to California about one year ago, and has resided in this city for six months. When searched at the Police Station he had a large supply of anarchist literature in his pockets, including the constitution of the Russian soviet government.

It is contended by Wiseman and Mrs. Hartman that they did not wave a red flag at the picnic. Wiseman says he had an ordinary stick in his hands, which was wrapped with red ribbon, and it was this stick which the police held was a red flag.

The two will be arraigned before Judge Frederickson today on a charge of waving red flags, and creating a riot.

BRITAIN TO CONTINUE TO TAX GREAT WEALTH

PREFERENCE OF IMPORTS FROM COLONIES INDICATES TARIFF PROTECTION.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

LONDON, May 1.—The features of the government's budget discussed in the House of Commons yesterday by the Exchequer, that are exciting most discussion are continuance of the policy of heavily taxing wealth without an increase of taxes for people of moderate means and launching of the scheme of preference for imports from the dominions and colonies.

The taxation on wealth and business profits is being increased by inheritance taxes beginning with 5 per cent, on $1,000 estates so that they pay 10 instead of 5 per cent, while an estate of $1,000,000 pays 50 instead of 20 per cent.

The ships in question are cost $35.50 per ton, or 41% of the cost of each of the ships spent for labor in the yards of California. This would make the total expenditure for shipbuilding on the eighty-seven ships $56,180, and this money contributed by the shipyards.

SURPRISES END TRIAL EVIDENCE.

Defense Offers to Submit Bribery Case Without Argument, but Woolwine Refuses; Tom Hughes's Niece Says Karr Told Him to "Take it up with Mayor."

Clothes with a crescent and star and a small emblem, the Woolwine case reached its final stage yesterday afternoon. The defense offered to submit the case for the jury to decide on the evidence presented, but Judge Woolwine refused to do so. He said that the defense had not presented any evidence in support of its case, and that the jury should decide on the evidence presented by the prosecution. The defense then offered to submit the case without argument, but Judge Woolwine refused to do so. In the course of his arguments Mr. Doran referred time and again to the Los Angeles Times, characterizing it as "the most powerful daily newspaper west of the Mississippi River."

BY CHIEF BUTLER.

Capt. Fredericks questioned Chief of Police Butler on direct examination, as follows:

Q: Who reappointed Sergt. Hackett to the metropolitan squad on January 1st?

A: Capt. Murray, with my consent.

Q: Why was the appointment made?

A: Because in several months on the squad his work had been wholly satisfactory to the captain who had charge of the place.

Q: Did anything Mayor Woodman said to you influence you to have Hackett appointed?

A: No, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINATION.

The cross-examination of Chief Butler was conducted by Deputy District Attorney Doran.

Q: Don't you know that when Officers Dillon and Oliver raided the Union League club they went into the bar and ordered whisky, and that the raid was a good one?

A: The question is objectionable on half a dozen different grounds.

Q: Didn't the club bring up from Santa Monica a judge who tried the case and held the law unconstitutional?

A: Defense objected.

Court: Objection sustained. Never mind about trying to refresh the recollection so often. He has expressed no desire to have it repeated. Let's get on with this case, or you'll be another week here. Confine yourself to the issues in the case. Where grand jury testimony does not vary materially from the testimony of the witness here, I don't want you to take up the court's time by introducing it.

Q: Didn't you tell John Gray of the Examiner that the Mayor on two or three occasions expressed the opinion that Hackett was not the proper man for the place?

A: I don't recall any such statement.

BURL ARMSTRONG.

That Armstrong, former Los Angeles newspaper reporter, was called by the defense.

He testified that the Tom Hughes family visited Karr in his hotel room at Sacramento some time there. Now tell us what was said.

After some informal greetings, Tom Hughes said, "Goodbye, Burl. I'll see you in Los Angeles."

Q: And the other side, she said at that time?

A: No, sir.

Q: Did Karr tell you that he had tried to impress upon Hughes the necessity of "making the matter up" with the Mayor upon his return to Los Angeles?

A: Not a word.

Q: Did Armstrong ask Armstrong if he and Karr were not bitter enemies?

A: I wouldn't say bitter, but I have no use for Mr. Karr.

At this point, upon motion by the defense, the court ordered Armstrong to leave the stand.

DEFENSE COUNTERS.

From the transcript the entire part of Hackett's testimony relative to his hostile feelings toward the Mayor, relative to Karr's alleged dealings with the Mayor, and the Mayor's office, was read.

HACKETT ON STAND.

Counsel for the defense then introduced W. J. Ford, attorney for Sergt. William Hackett, and asked that Mr. Ford conduct the direct examination of Hackett.

Q: Did you meet Karr in McAlister's office last December?

A: Yes.

Q: Did Karr say, "Did McAlister say what you were to come here and see me about?" and did you say that you knew in a general way what was wanted, etc.?

A: No, sir.

Q: Did you say you knew a lot of things that you were to give me anything you asked for?

A: No, sir.

State's "Surprise Witness."

Stagers from Courtroom; Physician Called.

Case is Halted to Give Her Time to Recover.

An additional thrill was given the sensational Kaffitz case, when, on trial before a jury in Judge Kier's court, yesterday, when a hysterical, weeping voice said, "Oh, oh," and Mrs. Maud M. Kaffitz, the young and attractive widow of William Kaffitz, arose and staggered out of the courtroom.

Friends rushed to her aid and led her to a seat in the corridor, while a physician was hurriedly sought. When it was found that she was in a highly nervous state, Judge Myers adjourned court until this morning.

Mrs. Kaffitz, the plaintiff in the case, although the will of William Kaffitz is offered for probate by his nephew and niece, Willy Kaffitz and Lizzie Migeot, has been a constant attendant at court, and, as a sensational case, she has become more and more of a curiosity. Yesterday her nerves gave way under the strain. The Kaffitz family had a doctor to her aid, and she was taken to the home of her sister.

EXAMINE CHAUFFEUR.

Jacob Migeot, chauffeur for Mr. Kaffitz, and brother-in-law of Lizzie Migeot, one of the heirs of Mr. Kaffitz's $15,000 estate, was under cross-examination by Oscar Lawler all day. He was working in the garage at the time Mrs. Kaffitz was alleged to have shot at her aged husband. When he reached the house, he said he saw Mr. Kaffitz struggling with Mrs. Kaffitz and pulled him away from her.

He also said that he had driven the machine for Mrs. Kaffitz, and that on various occasions a man accompanied her to the house. He testified that Mr. Migeot, the chauffeur, was the man who was alleged to have shot at her aged husband. When he reached the house, he said he saw Mr. Kaffitz struggling with Mrs. Kaffitz and pulled him away from her.

An attempt was made to show that Mrs. Kaffitz had been in the house at the time Mrs. Kaffitz was alleged to have shot at her aged husband. When he reached the house, he said he saw Mr. Kaffitz struggling with Mrs. Kaffitz and pulled him away from her.

TRIAL'S STRAIN

SNAPS NERVES.

Mrs. Kaffitz Collapses While Chauffeur's on Stand.

Stagers from Courtroom; Physician Called.

Case is Halted to Give Her Time to Recover.

An additional thrill was given the sensational Kaffitz case, when, on trial before a jury in Judge Kier's court, yesterday, when a hysterical, weeping voice said, "Oh, oh," and Mrs. Maud M. Kaffitz, the young and attractive widow of William Kaffitz, arose and staggered out of the courtroom.

Friends rushed to her aid and led her to a seat in the corridor, while a physician was hurriedly sought. When it was found that she was in a highly nervous state, Judge Myers adjourned court until this morning.

Mrs. Kaffitz, the plaintiff in the case, although the will of William Kaffitz is offered for probate by his nephew and niece, Willy Kaffitz and Lizzie Migeot, has been a constant attendant at court, and, as a sensational case, she has become more and more of a curiosity. Yesterday her nerves gave way under the strain. The Kaffitz family had a doctor to her aid, and she was taken to the home of her sister.

VICTIM TRAILED

FROM NEW YORK

Woman is Followed Across Country; Robbed Here.

Two Daring Thieves Escape from the Police Net.

Two daring thieves who, the police say, trailed their victim from New York across the country to this city, late yesterday afternoon stole $10,000 worth of fine damask linen and an automobile and then made good their escape.

Mrs. Rosa Joseph of 8 East Forty-sixth street, New York, wealthy member of a firm of linen importers, and owner of much of the missing linen, reported her loss to the police from the home of Mrs. G. A. Buckingham, 1909 South Harvard boulevard, in front of whose home the thieves secured their loot and the automobile.

According to her report Mrs. Joseph arrived in this city several days ago from New York. She came to call upon several wealthy customers. Yesterday afternoon, with most of her stock in three large cases, Mrs. Joseph drove to the Buckingham home in an automobile.

With several table spreads, valued at $2500 each, in a package, Mrs. Joseph left her cases of goods in the automobile in front of the Buckingham home and spent about half an hour in the Buckingham residence, discovered the loss of her automobile and the three cases.

From neighbors the police who investigated the case learned that two men in a large touring car drove up to Mrs. Joseph's automobile and one of the men, leaving his own machine, started the car containing the cases of linen and drove away with it. The second car followed the stolen machine, driven by one of the thieves.

On account of the value of the stock of linen, Captain of Detective George Home stated, after investigating, that the thieves without a doubt followed Mrs. Joseph from New York.

When Mrs. Joseph reported her loss to Central Police Station a score of police officers were at once placed in the district where the theft took place, but no trace of the machine or the three cases of linen could be found.

The stolen automobile, according to Mrs. Joseph, is an Overland five-passenger car and bears the State license number 312655.

TWO ADMIT ROBBERY.

Melvin Majors and Leo Mall pleaded guilty yesterday in Judge Craig's court to robbing G. Akiyama, March 21 of 1175. They will appear for sentence tomorrow.

WIDENS BREACH

WITH HUSBAND.

Mrs. Muir so Interprets Her Affair with Kavanagh.

Says "Arrested Aviator Is Merely 'Amusing Boy.'"

Love's hopeful glow, about to be rekindled after three years of painful separation, has been snuffed out again by the "amusing disappearance" of two diamond rings and a platinum lavalliere that brought about the arrest of J. Neville Kavanagh of Los Angeles, former flying instructor of the British Royal Flying Corps in Canada and later in Texas.

This was the version of the grand larceny and embezzlement case against the Los Angeles aviator and society man, as viewed yesterday by Mrs. "Betty" Rose M. Muir, his accuser and a society favorite in the military and social circles of San Diego and Coronado.

"Mr. Muir and I have not been separated legally. We became somewhat estranged during my three years' residence in California, but in the last few letters exchanged by us, the old love between us was springing into life, and I was about to go back to Chicago and reopen our home life," said Mrs. Muir, yesterday at the home of friends, where she is recovering from a motor accident "Easter morning. It was the accident that led to the disappearance of the diamonds, valued at $1200, and to the young man's arrest.

Kavanagh declares he spent most of the money realized from the diamonds on flowers and dainties for the woman while she was at the St. Vincent's Hospital, following the accident, and on items of lingerie.

"AMUSING BOY."

"He bought me what," she demanded indignantly. "I don't think it right to call these $150 nightgowns by such an expensive name. Poor Nevie, he was such an amusing boy, and he can't keep from saying funny things even when he's in jail."

Kavanagh was not half as amused at the incident that brought him behind the bars as the young woman appears to be. She vamped me, all right," she said, "and when money gave out, I had to keep up appearances. I was led to believe that he was a millionaire. Certainly I loved her. When she was injured and taken to the hospital to order that she would not have to worry, I did not give her any details, but used the money I got from the diamonds she gave me to pay the expenses and buy her the hundreds of things she wanted."

The young man enlisted with the Canadian forces nearly three years ago, and for two years was with the British Flying Corps, most of the time in England.

How a cute young woman keeps her dates in a hobbles skirt. You'd think she'd be a hobbles skirt at every appointment the other one would get tired. You see a girl minute along with four-inch stride you know a hobbles skirt to catch up with do. Her feet don't walk, they glide. The next time I see one I'm going to tell it off in the middle of road and give the woman a chance to run for her life. As the saying is: "A hobbles skirt—frailly planned. That dame can neither run nor swim. When she beholds the Holstein cow."

How a cute young woman keeps her dates in a hobbles skirt. You'd think she'd be a hobbles skirt at every appointment the other one would get tired. You see a girl minute along with four-inch stride you know a hobbles skirt to catch up with do. Her feet don't walk, they glide. The next time I see one I'm going to tell it off in the middle of road and give the woman a chance to run for her life. As the saying is: "A hobbles skirt—frailly planned. That dame can neither run nor swim. When she beholds the Holstein cow."

SOCIETY.

BY VIRGINIA WOODS.

Interesting Engagement.

Of interest to a large circle of friends is announcement of the engagement of Miss Irene Grosse of Pasadena and Mr. George Reis of New York. The news was told at a bridge tea at which Miss Grosse entertained a party of friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Grosse of Ford place.

Miss Grosse and Mr. Reis met several weeks ago when he came out for the wedding of his sister, Miss Virginia Reis and Carson Hicks. Miss Grosse was one of the bridesmaids and looked so stunning that she captured the heart of the New Yorker the first time he saw her. He left Saturday for the East, but will return shortly. The wedding is to take place in June and will be a brilliant event.

Mr. Reis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Reis of Greenwich, Ct. and is a brother of the late William Reis, who has just returned from overseas. He has two sisters, Mrs. C. E. Johnson of New York and Mrs. R. E. Reis of New York. Miss Grosse is a graduate of Los Angeles school in Pasadena and of Marlborough and attended college in Chicago. She has been a prominent figure in Crown City society for a number of years. During the war she was active in the Red Cross and the Navy and Army charities. For the past three years she has had charge of the Junior high school at the Hotel Maryland and last week was made secretary of the board of managers of the Pasadena Training School.

New York and Paris and is being extensively entertained while here.

By Mr. and Mrs. Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Seymour Scott entertained a dinner last evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Earle Benson, who are to leave tomorrow for Tulsa, Okla., to reside. The table was adorned with a profusion of Cecil Brunner and pink roses.

By Miss Bacon.

Miss Rose Bacon of St. Andrews place was a charming hostess Wednesday, entertaining a group of maids and matrons at a bridge tea in compliment to Miss Dorothy Whittah. Among her guests were Miss Dorothy Day, who is to marry Ensign Fred Worth next month, and Miss Dorothy Thompson, Adelaide Maney, Adelaide Duque, Mary McMillan, Grace Wells, Eleanor Johnson, Dorothy Davidson, Marie Scheller, Florence Kays, Mabel Sealer, Agnes Britt, Helen Lang and Miss E. B. Hall, Monroe Montgomery, Andrew Baldwin, Branton Parr, Daniel Francis Murphy, Jack Harrigan, Maurice Newman, Vernon Spencer and James McCallister.

By Mr. and Mrs. Hackett.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hackett of Detroit, who have been at the Hotel Maryland, Pasadena, all winter, gave a farewell dinner party at the Country Club last evening and left this morning for Santa Barbara for the horse show. Later they will visit in Del Monte and then return East.

At the table, which was beautifully adorned in pink roses and hyacinths, were Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Hawkins of Washington, Md., and Mrs. Ban Beaver, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Wright, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Wright. After dinner the company assembled at the handsome Oak Knoll home of Mr. and Mrs. Deaver to conclude the evening's pleasure dancing. Mr. Hackett is one of Detroit's capitalists.

By Mrs. Webb.

Mrs. Albert Edward Webb of 1811 Westmoreland boulevard is planning a bridge luncheon for Tuesday, which her guest of honor will be Mr. Morton Morse of Winnipeg, Can. Mr. Morse, a well-known Canadian capitalist, left yesterday for his home, but Mrs. Morse will remain at the Hotel Virginia some time longer. The evening before her husband left Mrs. Morse gave a dinner party at the Hotel Alexandria, assembling her guests at the Orpheum later. Col. and Mrs. Charles Rivers Drake and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Edward Webb were among the dozen guests present.

By Mr. and Mrs. Hook Moving.

To the regret of their many friends, Mr. and Mrs. Barbe S. Hook are moving next week to the Oaks, their beautiful ranch near Glendora and adjoining the country place of the late Judge Charles S. Hook. Mrs. Hook is planning to give a large party at her new home two weeks from tomorrow. She plans to entertain quite extensively on there.

Personal.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Connell and their daughters, Misses Eleanor and Catharine Connell, are leaving for Santa Barbara, where they will witness the horse show at the Hotel Belvedere.

Mrs. Francis J. Heney of Santa Monica is arriving while at Del Monte before going to San Francisco for a visit.

Lieut. Robert Elliott and William McElroy, who distinguished themselves in France and Italy and who have just returned after a year abroad, have been having a reception at Del Monte, but are home again. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Burnhart of Pasadena were there at the same time.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Isokett of Pittsburgh, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. William K. Thompson, have gone to Santa Barbara for the horse show at the Hotel Belvedere and from there go to Del Monte and San Francisco en route East.

MAYOR'S CASE IS ARGUED.

FREDERICKS LETTER TO BE CONSIDERED. CHARGE OF CORRUPTION WILL BE TAKEN UP BY THE SUPERVISORS TODAY.

The Supervisors expect to take up the consideration of the matters referred to in the letter Capt. J. D. Fredericks sent to the board on Wednesday charging corruption, at the session today. Chairman Dodge stated that if a conference is called, Dist. Atty. Woolwine will be asked to be present.

It is learned that the warrant on which Martin Milvaushutz drew $48 for services as an investigator for the District Attorney as a guard for the Woodman trial was wanted, was divided as follows:

Criminal investigation, $25; serving subpoenas and other incidents, including $4 a day for Milvaushutz's pay, $26.45.

Dist. Atty. Woolwine declined to make any comment yesterday regarding the matter. Meantime the grand jury may make a reply, it was said.

INDICTED PATROLMAN OUT. Robert H. Johnson, a colored patrolman indicted on a charge of receiving a bribe, and who had been in the County Jail since April 10, was released on $1000 bond by Presiding Judge Teller yesterday. The bondsmen are T. J. Hooper and D. Bronson. Attorneys Crouch and Crouch represented Johnson at the proceedings.

ARRAIGNED FOR BURGLARY. Formal complaints for burglary were issued yesterday by Deputy District Attorney Randall for George E. Sargent and William Smith, alleged to have burglarized the rooms of O. G. Roberts, 731 San Julian street, taking away a trunk. Three other burglaries are charged against them. They were arraigned in justice court and committed to the County Jail.

time as an instructor at Camp Borden, Can. and later at Camp Everman, near Fort Worth, Tex. He arrived in San Diego about the middle of January, and became popular in the society and military circles, where he met Mrs. Muir. About February 1, he came to Los Angeles, and a few days later Mrs. Muir also came here, he says.

Mrs. Muir is the wife of Robert Muir, a wealthy traveling representative of a large manufacturing concern of New York and Chicago, and formerly of Hotel Stratford, of the latter city. Before marrying Mr. Muir six years ago Mrs. Muir lived at the Plaza Hotel, New York, and was well known in the art and studio circles of the metropolis. She is 27 years old and Mr. Muir about 30.

"I came here three years ago, for my health, and gradually drifted away from my husband, whose business kept him in the East. But at all times I was in touch with him and receiving a liberal allowance. That doesn't mean I was in San Diego last summer, when the court-martial brought out the fact that some artillery officers began their party at my home, got me in a lot of trouble. Now this thing is another burden on me. I'm sorry I did not forget all about these diamonds, and let Neville keep them," she said yesterday.

Mrs. Muir absolutely denied that the young flying officer ever was anything but a friend to her. "He was so amusing, and so delightful, at times, but I never took him seriously. He was always broke, so we did not go out to many parties, as he says we did."

In the complaint issued by the District Attorney's office Kavanagh is charged with taking the diamonds while Mrs. Muir was at the hospital as the result of an accident. He denied the woman did not have knowledge of the fact that he had the diamonds, Warren Williams, his attorney, yesterday declared the young man is innocent, and that he turned the diamonds over to Mrs. Muir at her request, and for the purpose of buying things for her.

What his son is a good sort of a kid," when he was not mixed up with bad companions, and that he wanted him to keep up with "from women," was the statement of J. C. Kavanagh, the boy's father, who is in San Diego, and is heart-broken over this escapade. Mr. Kavanagh said:

"The last guest luncheon of the club year, followed the social science programme yesterday at the Eboli Club. Mrs. A. D. Jack, social science chairman, had the programme in charge. The speakers of the morning were Mrs. Josiah Evans, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. Andrew S. Lobingier, president of the County Jail, and Mr. J. C. Kavanagh, who was set forth in the complaint.

The luncheon programme was under the direction of Mrs. Matthew Robertson and Mrs. Jay B. Millard, with Mrs. A. D. Jack as toastmistress. Mrs. Robertson, asked for an expression of her ideals for club life and activities, said: "I find it difficult to speak about myself, but I can tell you what I know the Eboli ideals to be." She then gave a brief summary of the aims of the club for philanthropy, and for the cementing of friendships which would extend beyond its own boundaries. Mrs. Robertson introduced as speakers M. P. TONIGHT'S CARD.

Cliff Jordan vs. Jimmy Darcy, 145 pounds.
Harry Brainer vs. Tommy Nelson, 155 pounds.
Tony Roselli vs. Budd Star, catchweights.
Jimmy Star vs. Young Davy, 155 pounds.
Willie Moody vs. Frank Oldrich, 155 pounds.
Red Belden vs. Harry Day, 155 pounds.

Jimmy Darcy, whose real name is Valley Trambitas, brother of Alce Trambitas, who beat Phil Salvador in the main event at Vernon Tuesday night, will make his first start in the local ring tonight when he meets Cliff Jordan, the best of the local heavyweights, in the main event at Vernon.

Darcy came here from Portland with the reputation of being a fair boxer and a high-class slugger. He has been boxing up and down the Coast for several years and has trimmed most of the good boxers of his weight.

In meeting Jordan, Darcy will tackle the best of the local outfit at 145 pounds. Jordan is a tall, tall left jab that he uses effectively at all times. It is a mighty fast punch for a big fellow and has won many bouts for him.

Then too, Jordan can hit. He has a left hook to the body that is a real knockout and he knows how to use it.

Tommy Nelson and Harry Brainer will meet in the semi-main event. It should be a bout in which most anything might happen. Nelson is fast-footed and when he sees himself and cuts loose with his right hand it is certain for his opponent if he is lucky enough to land. Aside from that one punch, Nelson hasn't much except a willingness to mix it. Brainer is a fair hitter and a much better boxer than Nelson. The latter may have a slight weight advantage and it looks as if he may need it before he is through with the Denver boy.

Budd Star of Pasadena is matched with Tony Roselli, the pride of the local fire and police departments in the mauling line. Roselli's chief bid to fame was his one round knockout at the hands of Fred Fulton and the fact that he went four rounds with Willie Moody. Still he is always trying and as Roselli hasn't shown much except ability to slug the bout should be full of action from start to finish. Star's latest bout was with Johnny Packer, a colorado heavyweight, who was knocked out in the fourth round. It will be Roselli's first start at Vernon.

A number of newcomers will be seen in action in the preliminaries. Jimmy Star, who has put up some good suggestions in the local ring, is matched with Young Davy, who is said to be a great rough and tumble scrapper. If he's rough enough he ought to make a great match with Star, who looks his best when the fighting is the roughest.

Willie Moody, who gave Muff Brown a trimming Tuesday night, is matched with Frank Oldrich. It will be Moody's second appearance in the Vernon ring. Oldrich has been boxing around San Francisco for some time and is well recommended.

The curtain raiser will be between Red Belden and Harry Day, a pair of willing mixers.

The first bout will start at 8:30 and Fred Winsor will referee.

he is the present champion's manager. The one condition of the match, which is generally of a monetary nature, is that Miller must be guaranteed $1500. If the match is effected, it will not be held at the Los Angeles Athletic Club.

If Gotch's backers still possess the $1500 so often referred to, the match should be settled up immediately, as the controversy that has arisen over the bout has been a $7000 house. This, added to the $5000, would total what Miller demands before entering into an encounter with the sturdy Greek man.

At the present time, Miller is working diligently for his coming "go" with Ben Burthen and in case the fracas with Gotch is arranged, the champion should be ready to meet his rugged opponent shortly after the middle of the current month.

BOYS WATCH THE GIRLS ON TRACK.

FIRST TIME IN HISTORY OF UNIVERSITY THAT SUCH IS ALLOWED.

Horrors—the male students of the University of Southern California were permitted for the first time in the history of the institution to witness the annual interclass track and field meet for the women students.

All the ladies turned out to root for their favorites—yes, lady friends. The "hon vivants" were garbed in their gayest, some with red ties, bright canary yellow-socks, etc. It was a gala day for the ladies, and not once during the whole proceedings did the fair ones give any signs of blushing.

The affair took place yesterday afternoon and up to a late hour last night the results of the various events were not obtainable. It has been feared that several world's records have been broken and before making announcement of same, former marks are being investigated.

Just to add zest to the occasion and in order that boys be given a real treat, the university women's jazz orchestra made its first appearance and judging from the way the boys were swaying—not shimmying—the musical artists made a decided hit. In addition, the kazoos scatted rendered several selections, which met with hearty approval.

Nine events in all comprised the programme, the majority of which were in the field event class, while the girls did not take particularly to the speed events.

Despite the fact that the girls have not been in arduous training, the competition offered was interesting and the performance of many a co-ed received hearty applause from the stalwart ladies of the bleachers.

Following is the athletic programme and the girls who took part:

Broad jump—Helen Poston, G. Elva, Gertrude Ingham, Claire Newman and Lorraine Noble.

High jump—Ada Sharpless, Nina Stone, Muriel Arkley, Vivian Bradley and Miss Edwards.

Shot put—Gladys Wilkinson, Nina Stone, Belle Rasebloom, Lorraine Noble and Gertrude Ingham.

FISH DODGE
HIGH CHORDS

Object to the Strings Pulled by the Tenors.

Avoiding Skill of John McCormack.

Parts Now Uninhabitable by Submarines.

The fish, especially the large ones, swarmed out into midocean today in order to avoid the pernicious fishing rod of the popular John McCormack, who is visiting Catalina Island, a guest of Mr. Wright, the latter, John proposes to catch the biggest fish ever caught in these waters to break the record, in the event he will be driven over the island in the afternoon, viewing many points of vantage desirable for a summer home.

He is accompanied by D. F. McCormack, his personal representative, and Edwin Schneider, his accompanist. Lieut. Donald Manthorpe, the violinist, has remained in Los Angeles to enjoy some more right-angled practice some fancy spins in the key, which he learned in the service. They will all return Saturday in anticipation of the first McCormack concert to be given at Shrine Auditorium tomorrow afternoon.

JUDGE LEARNS WIFE'S SECRET.

Whispered to Him by Her During Divorce Trial.

However, He Weighs Matters and Decree is Denied.

Amended Complaint, Charging Misconduct, may Follow.

Trial of the divorce suit of Mrs. Susan May Kingsley, wife of William M. Kingsley, vice-president of the United States Trust Company of New York, with its resultant denial of a decree, by Judge Crall, yesterday, developed a most amazing situation. Although only a divorce was charged, Mrs. Kingsley declared that her husband would not return to her, saying from the stand: "I feared for some time that he was entangled with another woman. He made no declaration or excuse."

"Have you been willing to live with him since the separation, in August, 1917?" asked the court.

"I was willing to live with him only as a friend and housekeeper, in order to keep the family together."

"You were not willing to live with him as his wife?"

"No."

Mrs. Kingsley stated that prior to the separation they had not occupied the same room. This, Mrs. Kingsley said, was through no fault of her own. She then told the court an intimate secret.

Judge Crall said he would have to deny the decree, inasmuch as Mrs. Kingsley had had no wife's relations with her husband prior to the separation, but that a new complaint could be filed, charging Mr. Kingsley with misconduct.

But, in view of the secret imparted, Attorney J. B. Trefeld said that misconduct would not hold, and a new suit would be useless. "We don't charge adultery," he asserted.

Mrs. Kingsley was accompanied by her son, Charles P. Kingsley, and her daughter, Elma, who are living with her.

Would Live with Him, but not as Wife.

COLORED VOTE FOR WILLIAMS?

Seven Clergymen Indorse Him for the Mayoralty.

Property Owners' Body Wants Olsen on the Council.

Alexander P. Fleming Gives Outline of Platform.

BY THE WATCHMAN.

Seven of the colored ministers of Los Angeles yesterday issued a statement addressed, "To the citizens of Los Angeles, especially the colored voters," in which they indorse the candidacy of General Williams for Mayor. The statement is signed by Revs. W. C. Davies, R. D. Arline, Eddie R. Driver, J. Edward M. Clark, S. M. Beane, G. A. Goings and J. M. Pollett, and says:

"We, the undersigned ministers of the gospel, on behalf of civic righteousness, believe it to be our duty to inform you that after careful study of the qualifications and character of the Hon. General Williams, candidate for Mayor of Los Angeles, we believe him to be a candidate who will represent in that office the high moral principles for which we stand pledged not only to God, but to our fellow citizens."

"We believe that the righteousness of our city has been assailed by the forces of Satan. We, as colored ministers of the gospel, and as proponents of righteousness, feel that it is our right and duty to tell you the position that we have assumed in this matter. The stand taken by Mr. Williams on moral questions makes him the only candidate who will represent in that office the high moral principles for which we stand pledged not only to God, but to our fellow citizens."

They indorse Olsen.

Indorsement of Neal P. Olsen for re-election to the City Council, because of the business methods he has applied to the conduct of city affairs, has been given by the Property Owners' Association of Southern California. L. T. Mayo is the president, and Lyman Farwell, secretary. The directors are E. J. DeLorey, F. J. Whitten, R. H. Raphael, H. M. Haldeman, Albert Olcott and A. G. Lindley.

Chance for Free Air Ride.

Cecil B. de Mille will fly all over the city on Sunday and scatter papers bearing the legend "Our Friend Snyder." The person returning the largest number of these papers will be given a long free ride in the De Mille airplane at a convenient time, or may send a substitute on the trip if he so desires.

The lucky person will also be given a pass to the LaSalle studios to see Mr. de Mille's motion picture pictures. The five next highest numbers will entitle five persons to passes to the studio to see the picture. The person returning the largest number of these papers will be given a long free ride in the De Mille airplane at a convenient time, or may send a substitute on the trip if he so desires.

Burks as a Worker.

There is one man in the primary race who has been working twenty hours a day for two weeks. He is Paul Burks, candidate for City Attorney. He is a member of the United States Railroad Administration, he puts in every minute of his duties as such, and before and after his court and office hours he looks after his own campaign.

Speak at Harbor.

The San Pedro Chamber of Commerce let down the bars against politics for an hour yesterday when the various candidates for Mayor of Los Angeles were invited to speak at the regular weekly luncheon.

Three of the six responded. They were Eugene Weaver, General Williams and Irene Smith, the Socialist candidate. M. P. Snyder was unable to attend on account of an accident on the way to the harbor. Capt. Louis Hanson spoke in his behalf. Neither Mayor Woodman nor Dr. E. D. Small were represented.

Dismiss Cases for Lack of Evidence.

Three cases involving alleged violations of the Espionage Act were dismissed yesterday by United States District Judge Trippe, on motion of Assistant United States District Attorney Green. Indictments were returned in June, 1918, against the accused, including J. C. Jepson, A. C. Dyer and Hugo Lemmel. It is understood that the evidence against the defendants was not as strong as it might be.

The most important of these cases, that involving E. D. Sexton and other defendants charged with circulating copies of the Kingdom News, in violation of the Espionage Act, is set for July, when the trial date is to be fixed by the court, according to the present information.

Political Notes.

The Property Owners' Association of Southern California has indicated its preference for Mayor Williams in the primary election of the city, at industrial plants, and there is a strong feeling in the city that Mr. Williams is the best man for the job.

Mayor Woodman's Club yesterday afternoon held its annual meeting at the Hotel Seward. The club is a social organization for the benefit of the city, and its members are the city's leading citizens.

May Day Dances Are Held at Many Parks.

SCHOOL CHILDREN SEEN IN ALLEGORICAL NUMBERS—PLAN OTHERS FOR TOMORROW.

May Day dances and other festival events were held in many of the city parks at playgrounds yesterday and still other dances and celebrations will be held tomorrow, when the schools have their regular Saturday holiday.

The principal May Day event yesterday was held in Lincoln Park, where Mrs. Sloan-Orcutt, president of the Park Commission, presided over a festival in which hundreds of children, largely from Lincoln High School, took part. The Lincoln High School band furnished music and there were three May poles. Dances, the performance of allegorical numbers and a track meet for novices were features of the program.

At the Slauson playgrounds "The Awakening of the Flowers" was the theme of the dances. Exercises also were held in the gymnasium of the Recreation Center, and last night the Arroyo Seco May festival was held.

Tomorrow a May queen will be crowned as the finale to a programme of sports and springtime festivities at the Echo Park playgrounds. At 10 a. m. there will be a track meet between seventh and eighth-grade boys of the Logan-street, Clifford-street, Rosemont-street, Micheltorena-street, and other schools. Dances of various kinds will precede the crowning of the May Queen.
